

Due to the rapidly evolving nature of state and federal programs, this information may change unexpectedly.

COVID-19 FINANCIAL HELP IN WASHINGTON STATE

How to get financial help if you are affected by COVID-19

March 31, 2020

If you or your business needs help due to the impacts of COVID-19, the State's coronavirus web site (coronavirus.wa.gov) is a good place to start. You can also use the links below for resources that may help meet your needs.

FOR BUSINESSES

- ✓ Learn if your business is considered essential and can continue to operate following the Governor's March 23 Stay Home, Stay Healthy order.
- ✓ The Washington Department of Commerce has created a list of crisis planning tools and resources where you can get information about emergency grants, disaster loans, (including from the Federal Small Business Association) and other small business support.
- ✓ The Washington State Department of Revenue has information about tax filing deadlines, extensions, and relief.
- ✓ Greater Seattle Partners, City of Seattle, and the Chamber have launched a survey for businesses, freelancers, and gig workers to learn about needs and help target future support.

FOR INDIVIDUALS

- ✓ Emergency assistance. If you need emergency help with food, housing, or other services, contact King County Crisis Connections (call 2-1-1 or text your zip code to 877-211-9274).
- ✓ Cash assistance from the federal government's stimulus package, of up to $1,200 per person depending on income, will be sent to households in early April.
- ✓ Unemployment. If you have lost your job due to COVID-19, you can file for unemployment benefits.
- ✓ Childcare. If you work an essential job (healthcare, first responder, etc.), there are options for free childcare:
 - For Seattle residents, the Mayor has announced a plan to serve more than 700 children of essential workers
 - For residents or workers in Seattle's University District, University Temple Children's School is providing immediate childcare
 - For residents outside Seattle, contact your local school district for options on childcare for essential workers
- ✓ Mortgage & Rent. If you don't have enough money to pay your rent or mortgage, contact your lender or landlord immediately. Help includes:
 - Washington Homeownership Hotline (877-894-HOME)
 - Consumer Financial Protection Bureau suggestions
 - Rental assistance & counseling (800-569-4287)
 - List of Housing Counseling Agencies
 - For renters, the Governor issued a statewide moratorium on evictions of residential tenants for non-payment of rent until April 17
- ✓ Student Loans. If you need help with your student loans, you may be able to temporarily suspend your payments by applying for a deferment or

forbearance from the US Department of Education.

- ✓ Utility bills. If you need help paying your utility bills, contact your service provider immediately.
 - Seattle City Light, Seattle Public Utilities, Puget Sound Energy, and most city-run utilities in King County will not shut off service during the emergency. Most utilities also offer assistance programs for people in need.
 - The Utilities and Transportation Commission offers energy assistance programs.
 - The federal government offers assistance programs to help with telephone and heating bills.
 - Comcast is offering free WiFi hot spots, unlimited data, and no disconnects or late fees.

- ✓ Health Insurance. The Washington State Insurance Commissioner has information about health insurance, as well as how to get insurance through the Washington State Exchange if you need it.

- ✓ Food assistance. If you need help with food, every school district in the state is providing to-go lunches for children (check here for the location nearest you), and there is additional help at many local food banks.

FOR NONPROFITS & COMMUNITY-BASED ORGANIZATIONS

- ✓ Nonprofit assistance. The National Council of Nonprofits has information on federal support for nonprofit organizations affected by the pandemic.

- ✓ Outreach and engagement. King County's Office of Equity and Social Justice is providing grants to organizations that serve communities at the highest risk of immediate and long-term impacts, with an emphasis on communities located near isolation, quarantine, and recovery sites.

- ✓ Arts and Culture. 4Culture's Cultural Relief Fund will help arts and culture organizations with the closures and cancellations caused by the coronavirus emergency.

- ✓ Direct service. The Seattle Foundation's COVID-19 Response Fund provides resources to community-based organizations serving people in need during the emergency.
- ✓ Seattle's Historic South Downtown. Historic South Downtown is awarding grant funds to non-profit organizations that serve the residents and businesses of Pioneer Square and the Chinatown-International District.

